

SUBJECT	EVIDENCE HANDLING PROCEDURES
----------------	-------------------------------------

2.0 Evidence Handling Procedures

- 2.1 The Firearm and Tool Mark Section will follow the evidence handling procedures outlined in the State Bureau of Investigation Policy and Procedure Manual, with particular attention to the following:

Procedure 37 - Evidence Handling

Page 37 - 1	Physical Evidence Handling Procedures for Laboratory Personnel
Page 37 - 1	Submission of Evidence to Bureau Laboratory
Page 37 - 3	Evidence Which May Carry Infectious Diseases
Page 37 - 5	Protection of Evidence
Page 37 - 6	Accountability and Inventory of Laboratory Evidence
Page 37 - 7	Evidence Received by a Bureau Crime Laboratory
Page 37 - 9	Initial Marking and Identification of Evidence
Page 37 - 10	Documentation of Case Transactions
Page 37 - 11	Destruction of Evidence
Page 37 - 12	Receipt of Evidence by Examiner/Analyst
Page 37 - 13	Transfer of Evidence to Another Laboratory Section
Page 37 - 13	Evidence Returned from Laboratory Section to The Evidence Control Unit

FIREARM AND TOOL MARK SECTION TECHNICAL PROCEDURES MANUAL

SECTION 2
JULY 1, 1996

SUBJECT	EVIDENCE HANDLING PROCEDURES
----------------	-------------------------------------

Page 37 - 13	Return of Evidence from Bureau Laboratory
Page 37 - 16	Notification When Evidence is Not Received
Page 37 - 16	Evidence Garage