

SUBJECT: MATERIAL RESOURCES

MATERIAL RESOURCES

- A. Law enforcement is among the most costly, important, and complex services provided by the State of North Carolina to its citizens, a service constrained by limited resources. To ensure the highest possible level of service, the Bureau must utilize efficient management and budgeting practices. The Bureau's greatest resource is its personnel. To maximize effectiveness, the SBI seeks to provide the best possible training and equipment for its personnel.
- B. All personnel are encouraged to make suggestions about equipment that might benefit Bureau operations.
- C. The Bureau provides employees with appropriate equipment and expects employees to maintain that equipment in a reasonable fashion. Employees are held responsible for damage to Bureau equipment arising out of neglect or misuse.
- D. The SBI maintains a well-structured system for management and accountability of property owned or used by the Bureau.
